

Volunteer – Historical Collections

Description of work

The Arlington Heights Historical Museum is home to over 50,000 artifacts. We are looking for volunteers to help maintain and organize these important pieces of history. Collections volunteer work includes, scanning and digitalizing photos, working with our doll collection, conducting oral histories, complete research for upcoming programs and events, ect. Volunteers will be required to complete different task based on the specific project.

Job Responsibilities

Todo

Time Commitment

Todo

Role this position will report to

Operations Manager